the two papers deal with slightly different phases of Admin Plan procedure, but I don't think we are experiencing any difficulty at present with either phase. Unless you feel that we should go further into Chicks proposal, I would recommend that we let it drop - the following comments:

1-Para 2a - I don't see why CI staff needs to be in on the drafting phase of the Admin. Plan, since they will have an opportunity to review the Plan and the Project Outline together when they are completed.

Likewise, Office of Security participation doesn't appear to be necessary, but guess we should wait until September to attach that one.

Re. Chicks "understanding" that CM/Plans will participate in the preparation and coordination of all Plans, [redacted] states that RAPS (CM/Plans) should be consulted regarding;

(a) provisions to be included in the Plan, and the offices which should participate in the preparation of the Plan.

25X1A [redacted] definitely does not make CM/PLANS participation mandatory, therefore, I don't think we can say that ~~we~~ it is understood that they will participate.
